

'Chit-Chat from The Teeners'

Nolan Blackman

Due to there not being any excitement for the last two weeks, there has been no Chit-Chat, but we are back again and will be the rest of the year.

Joe Mello and Delores went to Big Bear this last Saturday and they had an awful lot of fun.

In the last letter Delores got from Frank he reported that he is in Munich, Germany and will be stationed there. Delores is still sitting home all alone. She receives lots of letters and spends all of her free time writing to him. Tell Frank Hi for all of us Cypress kids.

Mary Dias of Artesia was married this last Saturday night. The following kids were seen at the wedding dance in Artesia: Delores Cardin, Delores Coelho, Joe Mello, Narcie Ferreira, Donald and Hubert Beberria, and Teresa Mello. They all had a grand time.

Susan Zwart, Eldon Laird and Puky went to Pomona this last week. They went with Mr. and Mrs. Laird. After they got there they went to the show. I wonder if that was the reason they went up there???

If you want to see a bunch of scalped dames just look at Lolly, Tootsie, and Beverly.

This year we will have three Cypress boys to represent our fair city on the Varsity team of AUHS. They are Johnny Wright, Mike Troop, and Mickey, The Mouse, Gouyd. Although Mike no longer lives in Cypress we still speak of him as one of the Cypress guys. I might add that the team looks pretty good so far.

If you kids are wondering why Jerry Alleman hasn't been wandering the streets this last week it was because she has been laid up with the mumps. But she was well in time to register Monday.

The big Question of the week is: Who has a mad crush on Richard Johnson???

How do you like the neat looking '50 Pontiac Louis has been sporting around in? It is a slick looking Convertible. How will Elaine like the competition?

Vocational Nursing Successful

Speaking April 28 at Fullerton Junior College on "The Essential Ingredient," Dr. Edward Lee Russell, Health Officer of Orange County, told the Vocational Nursing graduates that "devotion to one's patients above and beyond the call of duty" is the secret success in nursing.

Dr. Russell spoke of the great need for vocational nurses and discussed their relations with the profession and the public. He told the graduating class that today there is a shortage of 63,000 nurses in the United States, and that this shortage will become progressively more acute until 1955, and there will still be a shortage of 50,000 to 60,000 nurses in 1960. This shortage is due to the lower birth rate in the 1930's, to the fact that women are marrying earlier now than ten years ago, and women's expanded opportunities for employment in business and industry.

In charge of the graduating exercises was Dr. Lynn Sheller, College Director, who pointed out that the local Vocational Nursing program has made great strides forward since its first class graduated last February. The College has been accredited for vocational nursing instruction by the National Association of Practical Nursing Education. Only three other colleges in California have been thus accredited; the other three, he said, are Pasadena, East Los Angeles, and Long Beach junior colleges.

Other advances that he mentioned were (1) the establishing of a new Nursing Arts laboratory at the College with complete equipment for the demonstration and practice of all skills required of nurses; (2) the adding to the staff of a clinical instructor in vocational nursing, giving the College two full-time instructors in the program; and (3) the success of our first graduating class, two of whom have been employed by the County Hospital and another by the Visiting Nurses' Association of Orange County.

Lloyd Riutcel of the Fullerton Junior College Board of Trustees passed out certificates of graduation to Charlene Diane Garrison, Mary Nakadachi, Mildred Reid, Marian Joann Schmid, Christine Irene Stidham, Emma Willis and Alberta Mae Yorba.

Taking the nursing pledge with them were the nurses presently in clinical training; Evelyn Eeschliman, Nancy Allen, Estelle Chorbagan, Bertha Cortez, Stella Danker, Ann Edgerton, Sharon Gregory, Dorothy Honn, Marcella Mead, Jessie Miller, Sarah Rasso, and Rosalind Stoffel.

Dr. Sheller stated that the Vocational Nursing program is offered cooperatively by the College and the Orange County Hospital School of Nursing. A new class is begun each semester, with the students spending their first five months in study at the College and their last seven months in clinical training at the Hospital.

Buea Park women interested in the year-old course should contact the Junior College office immediately. It offers a wonderful opportunity.

Various matters of routine business were discussed. Mrs. Barnett served doughnuts with mid-morning coffee.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. Stanley Martin of Cypress and Mrs. Aubrey Greenwade of Garden Grove, who won the appropriate games which were played.

Many lovely items were added to the layette Mrs. Lenerville is preparing for the new little arrival. A novel idea was carried out when guests were asked to wrap each package in a diaper, which was presented the honoree to add to her supply. The table carried out the motif of the affair, featuring a long-legged bird among pink and blue decorations.

The hostess trio served pink peppermint pie as the dessert course, with punch and coffee. Favors added to the color scheme.

Others present not mentioned were Mmes. Willard De Witt, R. E. Logue Jr., R. E. Logue Sr., Louie Sutor, Harold Dewitt, Art Cole-Dark, Joe Peters and Mickey Cleveland, all of Garden Grove.

Mrs. Clayton De Witt of Santa Ana, Mrs. Norman Leonard of Anaheim and Mrs. Jack Burrison of Artesia.

Mmes. Otho Switzer, Harry Smits, Dick Bakker, Dubert Laird, J. C. Napier, Virgil Webster, Walter Luebke, Wally Weigman, John Fleetwood and Arnold H. Holborrow, all of Cypress.

Sending gifts but unable to be present were Mrs. Mike De Lucca of Buena Park, Mrs. Albert De Witt and Mrs. Charles De Witt of Garden Grove, Mrs. Charles Gray of Midway City and Mrs. Eston Gage and Mrs. H. L. Olney of Cypress.

always more fun than sitting in the house pouring over a set of books. Would like to go back to night school and continue that brush-up on shorthand. If I had a piano, I'd even like to take piano lessons again! I also plan to be in church every Sunday morning. And while it may not be the church of my choice, the faith in which I was reared, it will be a service that will give me added inspiration to begin a new week, know.

But don't think it hasn't been fun, working with all of you, and as "retiring" editor, we do thank you for your cooperation and interest. Dale takes the reins again, and since he is not new at the job, he can begin again where he left off.

We got Mother and Dad K. off the plane Monday night, fresh as daisies and enthusiastic over air travel. They're back on the job, too, and the business should return to a more normal status. Dale had his big camera at the airport so that he could present pictorial proof to posterity of the plane ride. A passerby stuck his head out of a car as we were unloading his gear and wanted to know whom he was meeting. Probably thought Dale was one of those high pressure city slicker photogs, suppressing information of interest to the public!

So, until it's my move again in this mythical game of ENTERPRISE chess—au revoir and tootie-o.

Like some other businesses, they often say, "Once a newspaper man, always a newspaper man." That may or may not be true, but the fact remains that I am back in the business again, of my own free will, after only eight months out of it.

Beth has done a wonderful job of keeping things going, and stepping back into the editorship is a simple task, and it hardly seems as if I've been away.

Nutrilite is one of the finest companies I've ever worked for—bar none—and I've had quite a few jobs. They spend money and take great pains to make their employees happy. The principle regret I had when I decided to resign as their public relations manager, was leaving so many fine folks I'd grown to like. This was eliminated when Mr. Vaughan, the general manager, offered me a chance to stay with them on a consulting basis. I was only too pleased to accept, and they will call me in when they have public relations

Kiwanis Hears Of Juveniles

Cecil M. Bernard, superintendent of the Orange county juvenile hall, spoke to the Cypress Kiwanis club Monday night on the problems arising from juvenile delinquency.

It was decided to sponsor a breakfast to start off White Gold Day October 4, and George Ogata was appointed to look into the possibilities of having a float in the parade.

A guest was Dr. Jack Peraya.

MRS. ESSEX LEAVES

Mrs. Earl Essex left Wednesday for a two week visit with relatives in Livingston, Montana. She is being replaced in the Essex Variety store by her cousin, Pearl Rath of Lakewood.

Business is moving rapidly in Cypress and as I went up and down the street this week, I heard rumors of even a more promising future here. Jim Schmidt Lumber company is opening on the east end of town. More about both of them later.

Dick Hathcock announces the M- & H Market will discontinue its practice of opening Sundays from now on.

Another change among the business houses is the new line of hardware for home or dairy just installed by John Renema at Central Feed store.

Mrs. Dan Norland, 225 Evelyn Drive in Anaheim, missed winning a $50 jackpot in a promotion being carried on by a daily newspaper nearby. The Norlands formerly lived in Cypress. Mrs. Norland was awarded a $5 consolation prize.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Parker and their family have returned to their home on Danny avenue after living in San Diego last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sutton, 5582 Crescent avenue, entertained her nephew and niece and their two children, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Rodieck of San Luis Obispo when they had some time away from his studies at state college over the Labor Day weekend. The group enjoyed a barbecue dinner prepared at the Sutton home.

Mrs. Mary Sutton of Artesia is being cared for in the home of her son, Gordon Sutton at 5582 Crescent ave. Mrs. Sutton has been seriously ill and is a bed patient.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fleetwood and daughter, Joyce, who have sold their home at 8752 La Salle ave., are moving to Downey, which is closer to his work.

Far larger bills for us...but your electric rates haven't showed it!

Just ten years ago Edison's total operating expenses for one year were approximately eleven million dollars. Last year our fuel bill alone was more than that, and total operating expenses were more than three times as much as in 1942. Your electric rates haven't tripled though—in fact your rates for electric service are lower than ever before. If you have been paying more for electricity it's only because you use more—not because the price has been higher.

"Edison electricity is your best buy—you can depend on it!"

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY

Mrs. Arnold Club's Hostess In Her Home

Mrs. A. E. Arnold was hostess Tuesday at 5541 Bishop street to members of the Cypress Women's Community club. She was assisted by Mrs. Earl Essex, Mrs. Ed Robinson and Mrs. Len White.

Following the delicious dessert course served when the guests arrived, Mrs. Essex conducted the monthly business meeting.

Plans were made for participation at the White Gold Day annual festival. The club will sell aprons, pies, cookies and cake, and discussed having ice cream for the children.

Mrs. Jake Van Dyke was appointed by Mrs. Essex to have charge of decorating the booth, and was asked to name her own committee.

Mrs. Milam Williams injected a bit of humor into the meeting by reading a poem which was a modern version of Longfellow's "Children hour" adapted to television.

Guests present were Mrs. Arnold's daughter, Mrs. Robert Hoyt, and Mrs. Voris Langdon and Mrs. E. Robinson, mother and mother-in-law of Mrs. Ed Robinson. Mrs. Charles Colvin won the mystery prize.

The meeting in October will be held at the home of Mrs. Dick Bakker, 4711 Lincoln ave.

MRS. STEGALL ILL IN L. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stegall have moved to Long Beach following the sale of their property at 5602 Karen st. to the Wayne Edgingtons. They are staying in the home of an uncle, J. H. Brown at 5832 Gaviota avenue until Mrs. Stegall is able to travel to Illinois, which was their former home before they moved to California, and where they expect to return.

Mrs. Stegall has been ill in bed most of the time since August 15, but is able to be about with the use of a walker. She had many friends in the Buena Park area for the past three and one-half years, where she was saleswoman for a well known line of cosmetics.

HONOR Mrs. C. Will AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. K. E. Johnson, 5701 Saint Ann ave., invited members of the family to share in a birthday dinner honoring her mother, Mrs. Carl Will.

Guests were Mrs. Johnson's brother and family, the Bob Wills; her brother Bill Will of the parental home; Johnson, Will, and small Sharon, the Johnson's daughter.

Friends Bid Farewell To Philip Grabau

Bidding farewell to Philip Grabau, who left for service in the U. S. Armed Forces on September 5, were a number of family friends who gathered recently for a picnic supper in Recreation Park. After an enjoyable meal, the group presented him with a leather writing portfolio and a leather shaving kit.

Miss Barbara Roberts, displayed the beautiful new engagement ring which the guest of honor had given her as a birthday present, so congratulations and good wishes were mingled with the farewells and regrets at Phil's departure.

Sharing in the event were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Grabau of Fullerton, parents of the honoree; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McWilliams, Cypress, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Siems, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Almond and children, "Rusty" and Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Abplanalp, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winters, Paul Winters, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mahoney, all of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. Gabin Patin and son Nicky, of East Los Angeles.

CHAMBER WINS FLOAT AWARD

Three pretty girls from Cypress helped the local Chamber of Commerce to win a special award for their float advertising White Gold Day at the Los Alamitos Fall Festival Saturday.

Riding in the back of a convertible, which was decorated with a sign calling attention to the event October 4, were Pat Hicks, Mary Plantinga and Barbara Wallace.

Outline Plans For 4-H Club Group Locally

A worthwhile project for boys and girls in the 10 to 20-year old age group is being undertaken here by Mrs. Chester Larkin, 9741 Deni road.

Boys and girls interested in being members of a unit of the 4-H club are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Larkin at Anaheim 28855. She is working with the Santa Ana office through its representative, Wesley Humphrey.

Mrs. Larkin warns that no matter how enthusiastic the young people may be over the idea, they must have their parents' signature on the enrollment card before they can become a member. Mrs. Larkin suggests that the parent call between the hours of 2 and 4 in the afternoon if they have any questions, or come to her home.

There are many interesting projects which may be taken up. In the agricultural division a member may choose to raise chickens, rabbits, other livestock, or garden. Girls may choose any one of a number of subjects in home economics, or one of the agricultural group.

An interesting note is the fact that a boy or girl does not need to live in the country to be a member in the 4-H club. He needs only the interest in a project of some kind, and have the facilities available for carrying it out.

Mothers who are interested in being leaders are particularly needed, Mrs. Larkin said.

MARIE BARKER HAS RETURNED FROM EUROPE

Miss Marie Barker, whose home is in Santa Ana but who has many friends in Cypress since she occasionally helps in Henry's Drug, returned recently from a two month trip to Europe.

She studied French for one month at the Sorbonne University in Paris, and visited England, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Switzerland and the French Riviera.

Lovely Hamper New Project Rebekah Lodge

When members of the Busy Bee Rebekah lodge held their last meeting, Mrs. Jennie Mae Annin was an unofficial visitor. She is the junior past president of the Rebekah assembly and lives in Fullerton.

It was decided to collect 25c donations on shares in the hamper which will be given away at the Christmas party. Members are filling the attractive hamper with many lovely household articles, many of them hand made. Mrs. John Stodart is chairman of the committee.

Mrs. Robert Meils was voted into membership.

Mrs. Olive Masingill of Miami, Florida, has been a guest in the home of her long-time friend, Mrs. Roy Coniam at 5581 Vonnice Lane. Mrs. Masingill spends the winters in Florida and the summers in Hollywood and Glendale.

BARBECUE RIB DINNER AT JEFFREYS

Mrs. Jeff Jeffrey prepared a barbecued spare rib dinner Sunday evening for relatives who visited the Jeffrey home from as far away as Kansas City. The Jeffreys live at 5592 Danny avenue.

Visitors were Mrs. Jeffrey's mother, Mrs. Grace Stewart, Pasadena, her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Smith, Azusa, and the Kansas City relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Richards and son and Mrs. Lovita Olsen.
